ORDER GRANTING LIMITED STAY OF DISCOVERY

[Motion to Stay Discovery (#12)]

Before the Court is Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery (#12). Defendants seek to stay discovery until the Court addresses their pending Motion to Dismiss which raises issues of subject matter jurisdiction and the pleading sufficiency of Plaintiffs' complaint. Id. Defendants have given sufficient reasons to stay discovery; however, the stay requested by Defendants does not set a date certain for lifting the stay and will not be approved in that form.

Pursuant to Local Rules 7-2(b) and (d), oppositions must be filed "fourteen days after service of the motion" and that "[t]he failure of an opposing party to file points and authorities in response to any motion shall constitute a consent to the granting of the motion." Defendants filed their motion on May 8, 2014. To date, no opposition has been filed. Plaintiffs have consented to the granting of the instant motion under Local Rule 7-2(d).
